

Cat College Professors

Dean of Cat College

Susan Logan is editor of CAT FANCY magazine and CatChannel.com. She lives with her cats Sophie, Madison and Chloe.

Professor — Natural Science

Lisa A. Hanks is a freelance writer based in Newport Beach, Calif., who volunteers in pet-rescue work. She authors the monthly CAT FANCY column Natural Cat and is owned by three cats, who check her work daily from a lap-side seat.

Professor — Language and Psychology

Marilyn Krieger is a certified cat behavior consultant and owner of The Cat Coach, which offers both on-site and phone consultations for all cat breeds. She is an advice expert for CatChannel.com and CAT FANCY magazine.

Professor — Art History

Ramona Marek, a former special education teacher, holds a master's degree in education. She is a member of the Cat Writers' Association and long-time supporter of the arts. She is inspired by her two feline muses, Tsarevich Ivan and Natasha Fatale.

Professor — Sociology

Cimeron Morrissey is the founder of Project Bay Cat, a successful Trap-Neuter-Return program for feral cats. Having majored in Sociology in college, she began applying the science to study feral and shelter cats. Cimeron is an award-winning writer and Animal Planet's 2007 Cat Hero of the Year.

Professor — Biology

Arnold Plotnick, DVM, is a board-certified veterinary internist and feline specialist and the owner of Manhattan Cat Specialists. He is the medical editor of Catnip newsletter and an advice expert of CatChannel.com and CAT FANCY magazine. He lives in New York with his cats Crispy and Mittens.

Professor — Genetics and Physical Education

Sandy Robins is an award-winning multimedia pet lifestyle expert. She is a Cat Fancy columnist, CatChannel.com blogger and author of the best-seller "Fabulous Felines: Health and Beauty Secrets for the Pampered Cat."

Professor — Nutrition and Zoology

Rebecca Sweat is a freelance writer specializing in pet and family topics. She lives in the Dallas area with her husband, two sons and many pets.