

Cat Tales

Do you love fill-in-the-blank word games? Try our new Cat Tales game and see what crazy cat stories you create!

A Cat's Sleepless Night

Late one night, _____ (name) the cat couldn't sleep. Now _____ seemed like a good time to _____, (verb) he thought, so he _____ (verb, past tense) on his owner _____'s (second name) bed and _____ (verb, past tense) him. Because _____ (second name) was _____ (adjective), he _____ (verb, past tense) _____ (first name) the cat away. So _____ (first name), being a _____ (adjective) cat, decided to go _____ (verb) under the _____ (adjective) bed.

Under the bed, Bob the cat found tons of _____ (plural noun)! He wanted to _____ (verb) each one of them. So _____ (first name) the cat _____ (verb, past tense) his _____ (body part) and _____ (verb, past tense) his _____ (body part) until he caught one. It tasted _____! (adjective)

Well that was _____, (adjective) he thought, but now he was ready for more action. _____ (first name) the cat _____ (verb, past tense) down the hall and then _____ (verb, past tense) the curtains until he was on the _____ (adjective) window ledge. Outside, he saw a _____ (adjective) _____ (noun). When he tried to _____ (verb) the _____ (same noun), he _____ (verb, past tense). Because _____ (first name) was such a _____ (adjective) cat, he _____ (verb, past tense) on his _____. (plural body part) That's enough _____ (noun) for one night!

First Fun Cat Lib