Free Workshop for Feral Cat Caregivers Offers Advice on Keeping Harmony in the Neighborhood. The national nonprofit group Alley Cat Allies will sponsor "Cats and People: Techniques to Living Together in Harmony," at the Baltimore Animal Rescue and Care Shelter (BARCS) on Wednesday, Oct. 3 from 7 to 9 p.m. The workshop will feature special guest Dawn Kua of the Singapore Cat Welfare Society, who will offer advice to feral cat caregivers involved in urban Trap-Neuter-Return (TNR) programs on communicating effectively with neighborhood residents and successfully resolving misconceptions and concerns. Feral cats are outdoor cats that are otherwise healthy but are unsocialized to humans and, therefore, unadoptable. Feral cat colonies exist in virtually every community in the United States. Visit www.alleycat.org/baltimore for an up-to-date calendar of events for feral cat caregivers in Baltimore. Visit www.alleycat.org/baltimore, email: alleycat@alleycat.org or call 240-482-1988.
Yesterdays' Kittens Adoption Day (Connecticut) 5 to 8 p.m., Thursday, Oct. 44
What: Adoption event

Where:
Pattaconck Millwork
194 Middlesex Turnpike (Route 154)
Chester, CT
06412-1219

Info:
We will be having an adoption evening depending on the weather! If you have any questions, please call Yesterdays' Kittens, Inc. at (860)526-8358. There will be many cats and kittens to choose from. All people wishing to adopt must bring with them: a carrier (no kitties go home without one — NO EXCEPTIONS), current photo I.D., and a vet reference. Must be 18 years old — or older — or accompanied by a parent or legal guardian. There is a minimum donation fee of $50.00 to help defray the vetting costs — $75.00 for spay/neutered cats and kittens. All adopters will be given a copy of their adoption contract, which entitles them to a coupon book from Petco for $70.00+ off of kitty supplies. No alcohol will be allowed on site. Only qualified applicants will be able to take home a kitty that night. Call 860-526-8358, email Karen.YesterdaysKittens@yahoo.com or visit www.YesterdaysKittens.org.
