Jeanne Adlon, Professional Cat Sitter

Hello to all you who share your homes with our wonderful feline friends! I have been a professional cat sitter in New York City for 35 years and have cared for countless kitties while their owners travel. I am not a doctor or a behaviorist, but I know cats and am continually asked advice. I am thrilled to be given the opportunity to share what I have learned with you here on CatChannel.com. Please e-mail me your questions, and check my page for weekly answers. Read Jeanne's full biography.
