

Vaccine Timeline

Make sure your kitten is up-to-date on his shots by consulting this guide.

Stacy N. Hackett

FIP (feline infectious peritonitis). First dose given intranasally after 4 months of age. Boosters administered every six months.

Giardia. First shot administered at 8 weeks of age. Second in series administered at 10 to 12 weeks of age. Boosters given annually.

FIV (feline immunodeficiency virus). First shot administered at 8 weeks of age. Series administered at 10-11 weeks of age, and 12-13 weeks of age. Boosters given annually.

- More Kitten Health Tips -