

Breed Snapshot: Lucky Charms

Since its earliest days, the Korat has brought love and fortune into cat lovers' homes.

By Stacy N. Hackett

With its quiet, dignified presence, the Korat seems to understand its status as a token of good luck in its native country of Thailand. From the breed's silky silver coat signifying wealth to its radiant green eyes representing the color of young rice crops, the Korat appears destined to grace its owner with a bit of fortune.

**Get the April 2010 issue of CAT FANCY to read the full article.****