

Champion for Cats

C. David Edwards' cat-inspired paintings raise money for animal charities.

By Barbara Bullington

In the painting "Martini Bliss," C. David Edwards' black-and-white cat is immortalized in front of a background of swirling, vibrant, Mardi Gras-inspired colors, along with a martini glass and olives. However, this piece of artwork is more than decorative; it's one of the many paintings Edwards created to help save feline lives.

See CatChannel's exclusive slideshow of C. David Edward's fabulous cats.

Get the April 2010 issue of CAT FANCY to read the full article.