

Simply Singapura

Deceptively delicate, this small, engaging breed quickly endears itself.

By Sandy Meyer

Originally from the streets of Singapore, the aptly named Singapura is a charming, petite breed. Its small size is not indicative of its nature because of its captivating personality.

"This is the whole-ball-of-wax cat," says Karen Hill, who breeds Singapuras in her Beautymus cattery in Siler City, N.C. "It's playful, loving, wants your attention, everything. My husband's never been a cat person, and he thinks the sun rises and sets with Sings."

For the full article, pick up the August 2007 issue of CAT FANCY.

Did you like these letters? Subscribe now to read more like them