

A Gift From Above

A wandering cat finds a forever home.

By Michael Marley

Julie Marie Gervais, an animal rescue specialist in Toronto, got out of her car at the library on a cold winter day. A handsome, skinny ginger tabby bounded out of the bushes toward her. He appeared to be homeless. His meows told her he was hungry so she gave him food and water from the supply in her car.

*Get the August 2009 issue of CAT FANCY to read the full article.****