

How to Find a New Veterinarian

Take time to consider your options to find a good fit for you and your cat.

By Dusty Rainbolt

You are your cat's best friend; you feed him, brush him and scoop his litterbox. You make all the choices for your pet. You also choose the second most important person in his life: his veterinarian. Finding the right vet for you and your cat plays a big part in Kitty living a long and healthy life.

Whether you recently have moved, your work schedule changed or you're dissatisfied with your present vet, you can find a new veterinarian that fits your individual needs.
