

Safe Haven

Animal lover Rene Chartrand keeps Canada's Parliamentary feline attraction thriving.

By Robyn Walker

Nestled in a leafy grove of trees, perched high on the banks above the Ottawa River and a stone's throw from the seat of Canada's federal government, the Cat Sanctuary of Parliament Hill offers a safe haven to the capitol's feral cat population.

Get the January 2009 issue of CAT FANCY to read the full article.