

From Cargo to Cabin

How the airlines were won.

By Jeanne Marie Irwin

There was a day when any cat traveling by air was checked with the luggage into the cargo hold at the bottom of the plane. Nowadays, you're free to walk right into the airplane with Kitty in tow, provided you're equipped with a carrier designed to fit under the seat. Thanks largely to the work of Gayle Martz, president and founder of Sherpa's Pet Trading Co.
