

A Room of One's Own

Try creating a special place for your cat.

By Stacy Mantle

If you're thinking of creating a special room or the perfect project for your favorite feline, you're not alone. From custom cat enclosures to homemade cat condos, design is going to the cats.

Advantages of making your own cat furniture, rooms, enclosures and furnishings are numerous; the most obvious plus is cost savings. Also, when you create your own products, you know what you're getting. Whether you're using simple materials, such as cardboard boxes, or planning a more extensive layout by building an outdoor enclosure, there are plenty of ways to improve your pet's lifestyle while saving a few bucks.

Get the March 2010 issue of CAT FANCY to read the full article.