

Through the Years

So this is what a “cat lady” looks like.

By Stacy Mantle

CAT FANCY has been the premier cat fanciers' magazine since 1965, but ailurophiles have been around for thousands of years. Meet a century of cat lovers — from a concert pianist to a well-known surgeon — and find out why cats have captured our hearts and fascinated us for years.

Read the full article in the November 2008 issue of CAT FANCY.