

Scrapbook Your Cat

Preserve your feline photos and memories with some flair.

By Stacy N. Hackett

Duchess nestled herself comfortably in a basket nearly half her size, content with her napping spot. She looked so adorable that her owner, Kathi Rerek of New Jersey, grabbed her camera and took a dozen shots. She knew the photos would look perfect in the scrapbook of her cats, Duchess and Flash.

Scrapbooking continues to grow in popularity as people look for safe ways to protect their photographs. The range of products for this hobby allows people to create scrapbook pages as simple or elaborate as desired, and the products available for cat lovers could fill several scrapbooks.
