

Rescue of the Month

After a rough start, Ashley finds a loving home.

By Bonnie L. Hazen

On the side of the road, he looked like a dirty piece of ice or a chunk of snow that had fallen off someone's car. Then he moved.

Danielle Colvin of Youngstown, Ohio, says when her mother called her that Sunday about the little gray cat she almost hit, she knew she had to go after him.

**Get the September 2009 issue of CAT FANCY to read the full article.****