

Cats Magazine 2007 Editor's Note

Cat Lovers Welcome
By Jackie Franza

Cat lovers are a unique bunch. If you worship cats, you know nothing compares to these mysterious and captivating creatures. If you own cats, you probably aren't afraid to let the world know just how much joy your feline friend brings to your life. When we're feeling down, our cats comfort us—cuddled up in our laps, warm and purring. After a long, hard work day, we are uplifted by watching crazy cat antics. (Check out the results from our "Why Do Cats Do That?" survey on page 94.)

What better way to proclaim your passion for the feline purrsuasion than surrounding yourself with cute cat collectibles? From dishes, coffee mugs, note cards and mouse pads, to T-shirts, handbags, garden accessories and picture frames, cats have inspired artists and manufacturers alike. What could possibly be cuter than a set of cat salt-and-pepper shakers or kitten magnets? There's nothing like a silly cat pajama set or adorable cat socks to warm up a cool winter night. When it comes to the fabulous feline, you simply can't get enough kitty knickknacks.

The 2007 issue of Cats Magazine is jam packed with feline-inspired items to help you decorate your kitchen, living room, office, garden, bathroom, bedroom and more.

Of course, don't forget about your lovable cat. Peruse our Kitty Boutique on page 36 for plush beds, sparkling collars, luxurious dishes and even fancy litterboxes that are sure to pamper the most cherished pet. We hope you—and your cat—enjoy!
