

Pajama Party Fundraiser Benefits Cats

The Houston Humane Society invites animal lovers to don their pajamas and attend a fashion show Sept. 21.

Posted: September 19, 2006, 5 a.m. EST

Join the Houston Humane Society and animal enthusiasts at Crome nightclub Thursday, Sept. 21, for a fundraiser that is the cat's pajamas. The night will include a sleepwear fashion show and a silent auction. The $25 ticket admits you to the nightclub at 8 p.m. and includes a complimentary Kitty Kat Kocktail and a snack buffet.

Animal lovers are encouraged to wear their pajamas, bunny slippers and cat ears, but pajamas are not required. If you are in the market for a new set of pajamas, be sure to make it to the club by 9 p.m. In Vogue promotions has arranged a fashion show of today's trendiest comfortable sleepwear. If you plan to dance the night away, you can view another fashion show of lingerie around 1 a.m.

For more information on the Pajama Party or to order tickets in advance, visit the Houston Humane Society website.