

Updated 09-11-06

Posted: September 11, 2006, 5a.m. EST

Seized Cat Numbers Could Break Record

The removal of 300 to 400 cats from an animal sanctuary is probably the largest single animal seizure in Idaho's history, The Bonner County (Idaho) Daily Bee reports. Read the article

Wild Cats Take Over Seniors' Dining Room

Five wild cats made an appearance at a retirement community in St. Helena, Calif., recently, The St. Helena (California) Star reports. Read the article

Saudi Arabia's Religious Police Ban Pet Cats, Dogs

Saudi Arabia's religious police have issued a decree banning the sale of cats and other pets, which are seen as a sign of Western influence, The Associated Press reports. Read the article

Teen Punished for Killing Cats

A teenager was sentenced yesterday to 50 hours of community service for shooting and killing feral cats at a trash dump, The (Fredericksburg, Virginia) Free Lance-Star reports. Read the article