

The CatChannel Newswire

Top stories: Stem cell treatments for pets; cats escape, puppy stolen from humane society.

Posted: June 26, 2008 2 a.m. EDT

Stem Cell Treatments for Pets

Vet-Stem's stem cell therapy is just the newest frontier in the booming field of alternative veterinary medicine — which includes acupuncture, chiropractic and aquatic therapies, and traditional Chinese herbal medicine — an industry driven by pet owners who are increasingly willing to do or pay whatever they can to help their ailing pets, TIME reports.

Read the article

Cats Escape, Puppy Stolen From Humane Society

During the break-in at the Meriden Conn., Humane Society, 60 cats escaped, and someone took Cameron, a puppy that needs medical attention, humane society officials said, NBC 30 (Connecticut) reports.

Read the article

Authorities Remove 165 Cats from Wisconsin Home

Authorities responded to the home Monday night after receiving a call from a neighbor complaining about a strong stench in the area, The Fond du Lac (Wis.) Reporter reports.

Read the article