

Inspire Cat Adoption with Your Story

Your adopted-cat story could win a shelter up to $10,000.

If you have an inspirational story about your adopted cat or dog, submit it to the Hill's Pet Nutrition "Second Chance for Love" website. Participants must submit stories between 50 and 150 words, or a video clip less than 30 seconds that describes how you and your adopted pet gave each other a second chance for love.

Two grand-prize winners will be awarded a $10,000 donation to your favorite animal shelter, a VIP shoot with pet photographer Jim Dratfield and one year of free Science Diet pet food. Eight second-place winners will also receive rewards. In any case, your story can convince countless pet lovers to adopt from a shelter.

The contest ends on November 4, 2008.
