

The CatChannel Newswire

Top stories: Schoolchildren design cat trap alarm; South China tigers face extinction.

Posted: July 14, 2008 2 a.m. EDT

Schoolchildren Design Cat Trap Alarm

A new cat trap that tells the RSPCA immediately when one is caught has been designed by schoolchildren, BBC News (United Kingdom) reports.

Read the article

South China Tigers Face Extinction

Now one of the world's rarest and most elusive of mammals, the South China tiger is fully protected by the Chinese government, with no more than 10-20 wild individuals estimated to remain along the remote border areas of China's rapidly developing provinces of Guangdong, Jiangxi, Fujian and Hunan, The Times of India reports.

Read the article

Feline Parvovirus Outbreak at California Shelter

The San Luis Obispo County Division of Animal Services said many stray cats at the shelter are carrying a deadly virus, KSBY 6 Action News (California) reports.

Read the article