

The CatChannel Newswire

Top stories: Zoo introduces Siberian tiger cubs; hundreds of pets to leave New Orleans before storm.

Posted: August 31, 2008 2 a.m. EDT

Siberian Tiger Cubs Introduced at Zoo in Tennessee

The Little Ponderosa Zoo outside Clinton, Tenn., recently welcomed two Siberian tiger cubs, donated to the zoo. The zoo will have a special event to open the new $50,000 tiger facility Sept. 20, The Oak Ridger (Tenn.) reports.

Read the article

250 Cats, Dogs to Leave New Orleans Before Storm

Animal-rescue workers from Texas will evacuate more than 250 dogs and cats from New Orleans this weekend ahead of a tropical system that may hit near the three-year anniversary of devastating Hurricane Katrina, Bloomberg reports.

Read the article

Sacramento Drive Seeks Larger Sanctuary for Homeless Cats

Happy Tails, which for 15 years has been rescuing and finding homes for cats and kittens in Sacramento, launched a capital campaign to transform a former real estate office into a larger sanctuary for homeless felines. A local architect is donating his services to convert the former GBC Realty office at 60th Street and Folsom Boulevard, said founder Melinie diLuck, The Sacramento (Calif.) Bee reports.

Read the article