

The CatChannel Newswire

Top stories: Puppy finds feline mom at shelter; 'narco-mansion' raid turns up big cats – literally.

Posted Nov. 1, 2008, 3 a.m. EDT

Lions and Tigers and Drugs

When Mexican authorities raided a secluded mansion on the outskirts of the capital recently, they did more than capture 15 alleged traffickers. They also discovered a mini-menagerie in a faux-jungle complex of caves, pools and pagodas. There were cages holding two African lions, two white tigers and two black jaguars. Very Noah-like, the Los Angeles Times reports.

Read the article >>

Puppy Finds Feline Mom at Animal Shelter

Jelly Bean, a mother cat at the Humane Society of Harrisburg Area, may think her third "kitten" looks and smells a little strange, but she is letting him nurse and cuddle just the same, The Patriot-News (Pa.) reports.

Read the article >>

Penny-pinching for Pet Lovers: Make Your Own Cat Toys

There may be nothing more joyful than watching a cat play. The great news is that you can provide your kitty with many hours of fun for just pennies, The (Portland) Oregonian reports.

Read the article >>