

The CatChannel Newswire

Top stories: Roadside pet sales banned in Denham Springs, La.; Boy Scouts build winter homes for feral cats.

Posted: Nov. 29, 2008, 3 a.m. EST

Boy Scouts Build Winter Homes for Feral Cats

A Boy Scout on his way to becoming an Eagle Scout has built and donated five houses for stray cats. The Cleveland Animal Protective League will give the houses to people caring for wild, outdoor cats, The Plain Dealer (Ohio) reports.

Read the article >>

Denham Springs, La., Bans Roadside Pet Sales

The Denham Springs City Council has unanimously approved an ordinance to ban the sales of dogs and cats along highways and commercial and retail parking lots in the city, as well as recreational areas, the Shreveport (La.) Times reports.

Read the article >>

Pet Cats Trapped, Killed

A dispute between midtown Tulsa neighbors turned deadly for some pet cats. One neighbor hired a professional trapper to kill the neighborhood cats that got in her yard. Animal control says what she did was illegal, but they can't do anything about it, News On 6 (Okla.) reports.

Read the article >>