

The CatChannel Newswire

Top stories: Mountain lion cubs spotted in California; program helps seniors take care of cats.

Posted: Dec. 13, 2008, 3 a.m. EST

Mountain Lion Cubs Spotted in California

Three mountain lion cubs were reportedly seen near a school bus stop earlier this week in Fallbrook, Calif., authorities said. Sheriff's deputies were unable to locate the cubs or their mother in the area. The Sheriff's Department notified the Fallbrook school districts and state officials about the sighting, the San Diego Union-Tribune reports.

Read the article >>

Program Helps Seniors Take Care of Pets

The AniMeals program supplies free pet food and supplies to homebound, low-income seniors like Margaret Mazzarello, who cares for a sleek black cat named Salem in Harrisburg, Pa. The donated goods include big bags of pet food and packets of cat treats, PennLive.com (Pa.) reports.

Read the article >>

Cats Need Home After Death of Shelter Owner

When Chester Cole died at the age of 82 on Thursday of last week he did not just leave behind a daughter and son, nor did he leave behind only his grandchildren, nieces and nephews. When Cole's heart failed him last week, he also left behind the others he loved — the more than 20 cats he had given sanctuary to over the years, feeding them, cleaning them and providing them with shelter and medical care, the Staunton (Va.) News Leader reports.

Read the article >>