

The CatChannel Newswire

Top stories: Parents file lawsuit in fatal San Francisco tiger attack; Stray cats can run, can't hide from Dallas' stepped-up effort.

Posted Dec. 26, 2008, 3 a.m. EST

Parents Sue Zoo, City in Fatal Tiger Attack

The parents of a San Jose teenager who was mauled to death by a Siberian tiger at the San Francisco Zoo last Christmas Day sued the city and the zoo Tuesday, saying zoo officials ignored warnings that the walls of the tiger's enclosure were dangerously low, the San Francisco Chronicle reports.

Read the article >>

Stray Dogs, Cats Run, But Can't Hide From Dallas' Stepped-Up Effort

Southern Dallas was going to the dog. So Animal Services decided to respond – "COPS" style. The city agency has armed eight employees with catch poles and tranquilizer guns for an intensive five-week campaign to round up roaming animals in southern Dallas. Dispense notions of cooing pet lovers and timid workers. This is no ordinary sweep, the Dallas Morning News reports.

Read the article >>

Christmas Comes Early for Six Flags Tiger Cubs

Christmas came early for two Bengal tiger cubs at Six Flags Discovery Kingdom in Vallejo, Calif. During the cubs' daily walk (the cats wear collars and leashes when they go out), the park's staff gave them wrapped boxes containing stuffed animals, NBC Bay Area (Calif.) News reports.

Read the article >>