

The CatChannel Newswire

Top stories: Rude Ranch a haven for cats down on their luck; mountain lion escapes from California home.

Posted Dec. 28, 2008, 3 a.m. EST

Rude Ranch a Haven for Cats Down on Their Luck

Thanks to dedicated people like Bob and Katherine Rude, many homeless animals in Maryland will have a warm home this winter. The Maryland couple cares for 116 cats and six dogs at Rude Ranch Animal Rescue, which they run out of their home in Harwood, CNN.com reports.

Read the article >>

Mountain Lion Escapes From California Residence

A mountain lion is chased up a tree by a resident's dog on Saturday. Police said they responded to a resident who called about a mountain lion perched in a tree behind their home in Fairfield, MSNBC.com reports.

Read the article >>

Woman Accused of Running Fake Online Cat Charity

A Palm Springs woman created a fake animal rescue charity online and solicited donations claiming she was rescuing and breeding exotic cats in Boynton Beach, the Florida Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission said Tuesday, the Sun.Sentinel.com reports.

Read the article >>