

The CatChannel Newswire

Top stories: Holiday Windows 2008 finds homes for more than 300 pets; mail carrier helps cats in trouble on her route.

Posted: Jan. 20, 2009, 3 a.m. EST

Holiday Windows 2008 Finds Homes for 307 Pets

The San Francisco SPCA 2008 Holiday Windows placed 307 kittens and cats, puppies and dogs in new homes around the Bay Area and raised more than $55,000 in donations to aid the SF/SPCA in its future outreach efforts, the San Francisco Chronicle reports.

Read the article >>

Postal Carrier Helps Cats, Dogs Seen During Routes

Kim Pinkham's job as a U.S. Postal Service carrier in Prairie du Chien, Wisc., may expose her to animals in jeopardy, but the devoted animal lover said she sees each encounter as an opportunity to help, the La Crosse Tribune reports.

Read the article >>

Jaguars Quarantined After Zookeeper Attacked in Maryland

Two jaguars at the Catoctin Wildlife Preserve and Zoo in Baltimore were in quarantine Monday following an attack by at least one of them that critically injured an animal care worker, The Associated Press reports.

Read the article >>