

The CatChannel Newswire

Top stories: Lion cubs heading to Florida zoo; rabid cat attacks in Delaware.

Posted: Feb. 2, 2009, 3 a.m. EST

Lion Cubs Heading to Naples Zoo

Two lion cubs at the NEW Zoo in Green Bay, Wis., will soon be heading to the Naples Zoo in Florida. The NEW Zoo says 6-month-old lion cubs Masamba and Mandisa will make the trek down to the Sunshine State on Feb. 2, fox11online.com reports.

Read the article >>

Rabid Cat Attacks in Delaware

It's not unusual to see a stray cat or two roaming about a neighborhood, but in Newark, Del., the situation may just be getting out of hand, 6abc.com (Philadelphia) reports.

Read the article >>

Cat Returns Home After Being Away More Than a Year

Max the cat is back at home in Paradise, Calif., after vanishing in November 2006. The reunion had much to do with being at the right place at the right time, Contra Costa Times (Calif.) reports.

Read the article >>