

The CatChannel Newswire

Top stories: Search widens for woman attacked by rabid cat in Florida; earless cat changes Texas mom, daughter's lives.

Posted: Feb. 26, 2009, 3 a.m. EST

Search Widens for Woman Attacked by Rabid Cat in Florida

The Hernando County Health Department is widening its search for a woman attacked by a rabid cat Thursday, including reverse 911 calls to 805 people who live in the area of Spring Hill, Fla., MSNBC.com reports.

Read the article >>

Cats on a Leash: We'll Walk You Through It

Turns out that in these times when most cat breeders, trainers and shelter personnel implore people to protect their cats by making them indoor-only pets, a few are recommending leash walks for felines as a way to stimulate them, keep them fit and allow them to connect with nature, USA Today reports.

Read the article >>

Earless Cat Changes Texas Mom, Daughter's Lives

An earless cat inspires a mother and daughter to write a children's book and visit local elementary schools, sharing Zoe the cat's experience and teaching children the importance of kindness to animals, the San Francisco Chronicle reports.

Read the article >>