

The CatChannel Newswire

Top stories: North Carolina looks at future of animal euthanization; donations pay for rescued kitten's eye surgery.

Posted: March 2, 2009, 3 a.m. EST

North Carolina House Looks at Future of Animal Euthanization

The House Agriculture Committee began taking up the tough issue of how to euthanize unwanted or dangerous animals, the Shelby Star (N.C.) reports.

Read the article >>

Donations Pay for Rescued Cat's Eye Surgery

A kitten found abandoned in December 2008 was nursed back to health and recently had surgery for an eyelid disorder, paid for by funds raised through donations, the Melrose Free Press (Mass.) reports.

Read the article >>

Man Sentenced to 90 Days for Killing Kitten

A New Bedford, Mass., man was sentenced to 90 days in jail after pleading guilty to killing his wife's 3-month-old kitten because he was upset she treated the animal better than him, the Boston Globe reports.

Read the article >>