

The CatChannel Newswire

Top stories: L.A. council members barking over spay/neuter cuts; Sacramento SPCA pairs older people, pets.

Posted: March 20, 2009, 3 a.m. EDT

L.A. council members barking over spay/neuter cuts

Controversy is brewing over a decision by the general manager of Los Angeles' animal shelter system to end city vouchers for free and discounted spay/neuter procedures for pets, the Los Angeles Times reports.

Read the article >>

Possible Black Panther Sighting in New York City Suburbs

Authorities say they're investigating unconfirmed sightings of one or possibly two large cat-like animals prowling the New York suburbs, the Associated Press reports.

Read the article >>

Sacramento SPCA Pairs Older People, Pets

Charlotte Coman, 73, came to Sacramento SPCA's "Senior Day" this week looking for a new friend, the Sacramento Bee reports.

Read the article >>