

The CatChannel Newswire

Top stories: Two tigers, lion rescued from neglect near Dallas; reinstatement of spay/neuter vouchers urged in Los Angeles.

Posted: March 24, 2009, 3 a.m. EDT

Two Tigers, One Lion Rescued From Neglect Near Dallas

A Dallas-area animal rescue shelter already facing slumping donations now must accommodate two tigers and one lion that federal agents saved from starvation, the Associated Press reports.

Read the article >>

Reinstatement of Spay, Neuter Vouchers Urged in Los Angeles

Four members of the Los Angeles City Council introduced a motion Friday ordering the city Department of Animal Services to reinstate a voucher program that allows low-income pet owners to spay and neuter their animals free, the Los Angeles Times reports.

Read the article >>

Humane Society in Michigan Launches Pet Project

The Kibble Konnection, a pet food pantry run by the Humane Society of Kent County, Mich., is meant to help owners with squeezed budgets, the Associated Press reports.

Read the article >>