

The CatChannel Newswire

Top stories: University group manages stray cats; bobcat walks into Arizona bar, attacks patrons.

Posted: March 27, 2009, 3 a.m. EDT

University Group Manages Stray Cats

About 150 to 200 stray cats prowl the University of West Georgia, feasting on the mice and birds as well as food remnants left by students, and since October 2007, CampusCATS has been working to keep the population healthy and manageable, reports The Associated Press.

Read the article >>

Bobcat Walks Into Arizona Bar, Attacks Patrons

A bobcat attacked three people in the central Arizona community of Cottonwood, including two men who were bitten by the animal after it wandered inside a bar, reports The Associated Press.

Read the article >>

Injured Bobcat Prompts Warning Against Traps

Officials in Frisco, Texas, are reminding residents it is illegal to trap wild animals after a bobcat was found with a missing paw last weekend, the Dallas Morning News reports.

Read the article >>