

The CatChannel Newswire

Top stories: Stabbed therapy cat is improving; man saves 10 kittens abandoned in plastic bag.

Posted: April 24, 2009, 3 a.m. EDT

Stabbed Therapy Cat is Improving, May Go Home This Week

The therapy cat who was attacked at a South Seattle church is expected to survive, animal rescue officials said, the Seattle Post-Intelligencer reports.

Read the article >>

Man Rescues 10 Kittens Abandoned in Plastic Bags

The man took the little guys to the Toronto Humane Society, where the kittens are now safe and sound, being fed by a surrogate mother, The Canadian Press reports.

Read the article >>

Catwalk: Feline Follows Owner on Neighborhood Strolls

Pet owner Lisa McLeod doesn't need a leash to walk Kiewie through her neighborhood because the cat stays with her wherever she goes, Observer & Eccentric Newspapers (Mich.) reports.

Read the article >>