

The CatChannel Newswire

Top stories: Illinois town may set three-pet limit for condos, apartments; rabid cat sends three to hospital in Massachusetts.

Posted: April 27, 2009, 3 a.m. EDT

Wheeling May Set Pet Limit for Apartments, Condos

Wheeling, Ill., officials may impose tighter restrictions on the number of dogs and cats allowed in townhomes and apartments, despite pleas from a woman cited for owning too many pets, the Chicago Tribune reports.

Read the article >>

Rabid Cat in Massachusetts Sends Three to Hospital

Three residents will be forced to seek treatment for rabies after they came in contact with a small black cat that tested positive for the deadly disease, the Daily Item of Lynn (Mass.) reports.

Read the article >>

Cats' Skeletal Remains Found in Apartment

An Appleton, Wis., woman is charged with mistreating animals after the skeletal remains of about 20 cats were found in her abandoned apartment, the Associated Press reports.

Read the article >>