

The CatChannel Newswire

Hot Topics Edition: In case you missed them, here are the stories cat lovers were buzzing about last week.

Posted: June 22, 2009, 3 a.m. EDT

Judge Says Miami Cat Killings Suspect Poses No Danger to Community

Tyler Weinman, the Miami teen accused of brutally killing nearly two dozen cats can be released on bail because he poses no danger to himself or the community, Judge John Thornton ruled Wednesday. He ordered Weinman released after a brief hearing; Weinman's bond, which was set at $249,500, was posted Tuesday, the Associated Press reports.

Read the article >>

Four jaguar captures, three deaths

In the last seven years, biologists have captured four jaguars in the Arizona-Sonora region, in each case intending to put a radio collar on the animal and follow its movements. Three have died, the Arizona Daily Star reports.

Read the article >>

Kitten Found in Streetside Mailbox

A letter carrier made an extraordinary discovery inside a Hyde Park mailbox. But it wasn't an envelope, package, or anything one might expect to find inside a streetside mailbox. It was an 8-week-old kitten, the Boston Globe reports.

Read the article >>