

The CatChannel Newswire

Top stories: Accomplices sought in Florida cat killings; Nevada cat shot with arrow gets rescued.

Posted: June 26, 2009, 3 a.m. EDT

Accomplices Sought in Florida Cat Killings

Ten days after arresting a South Miami-Dade teen, law officers are still investigating whether cat-killings suspect Tyler Weinman had accomplices, The Miami Herald reports.

Read the article >>

Nevada Cat Shot With Arrow Gets Rescued

Tony and Braxton Crepeau don't know much about the cat they rescued. But they do know that she's lucky to be alive, after she was shot with an arrow and left to die, The Ely (Nevada) Times reports.

Read the article >>

Staph Infection Can Pass Between People and Pets

Transmissions of a type of staph infection, called methicillin-resistant Staphylococcus aureus (MRSA), between pets and their owners are on the rise, according to a new study, the Los Angeles Times reports.

Read the article >>