

The CatChannel Newswire

Top stories: Airman finds cat after five-year absence; baby bobcat wanders into living room.

Posted: July 8, 2009, 3 a.m. EDT

Airman Finds Cat After Five-Year Absence

There are many stories about pets who have traveled thousands of miles to be reunited with their owners, using their unerring sense of direction to take them back home against incredible odds. Wally the cat took a different approach when he was separated from his owner, however, reports the Minot (N.D.) Daily News.

Read the article >>

Baby Bobcat Wanders Into Living Room

When the Cox family of Novato, Calif., unpacked from a weekend coast trip, they were initially humored by what looked like a small kitten that had sneaked in through a front door they had propped open as they brought bags inside. It turned out to be a baby bobcat, reports the San Jose Mercury News.

Read the article >>

Salinas Red Cross to Start Teaching Pet CPR

Would you take a first aid and pet CPR class if you thought it could save your pet's life? Several chapters of the American Red Cross have been teaching first aid and pet CPR for a while now. But soon the Salinas (Calif.) chapter will be begin teaching those courses thanks to a grant they just received, reports KION.com.

Read the article >>