

The CatChannel Newswire

Top stories: N.Y. teen pleads guilty, sentenced in kitten killing; white lions seized from exhibitor find refuge in Texas.

Posted: July 17, 2009, 3 a.m. EDT

N.Y. Teen Pleads Guilty, Sentenced in Kitten Killing

A New York City teenager has admitted that she failed to let a kitten out of an oven after a friend put the animal inside and left it to roast to death, the Associated Press reports.

Read the article >>

White Lions Seized From Exhibitor Find Refuge in Texas

Vicky Keahey's newest charges, three white lions, arrived at her In-Sync Exotics, a big-cat sanctuary in Wylie, Texas, listless, with pressure sores from lying in one place and malnourished to the point that they have difficulty eating, the Dallas Morning News reports.

Read the article >>

Boston Zoos May Get Funds After Euthanasia Scare

Massachusetts lawmakers said they would try to restore $4 million in state funds for two local zoos after operators suggested that without the money, animals might have to be destroyed, a claim the governor called a scare tactic, reports the Associated Press.

Read the article >>