

The CatChannel Newswire

Top stories: Suspect in Florida cat killings reportedly wanted a deal; left-pawed or right-pawed probably determined by gender.

Posted: Aug. 4, 2009, 3 a.m. EDT

Police: Suspect in Florida Cat Killings Wanted Deal

Tyler Weinman, the South Miami-Dade teen accused of slaying 19 cats, offered to tell detectives "about one or two cats" if they made criminal charges on "the rest go away," the Miami Herald reports.

Read the article >>

Left-Pawed or Right-Pawed Probably Determined by Gender

New research shows that, similar to "handedness" in humans, cats' "pawed"-ness tends to split across gender lines, the Los Angeles Times reports.

Read the article >>

Pet Charity 'Saved' by Cat Lover

The future of Oxfordshire Animal Sanctuary in England could be safe for another 12 months thanks to a man who left his home to charity in return for the charity caring for his six cats, BBC.com reports.

Read the article >>