

The CatChannel Newswire

Top stories: Cheetah cubs make their debut at Swiss zoo; firefighters save kitten wedged in wheel.

Posted: Sept. 11, 2009, 3 a.m. EDT

Cheetah Cubs Make Their Debut at Switzerland's Basel Zoo

Three cheetah cubs, born June 17 to 10-year-old mother Msichana, made their public debut this week at Switzerland's Basel Zoo, the Los Angeles Times reports.

Read the article >>

Firefighters Save Kitten Wedged in Wheel

A kitten that found herself in a very tight spot now has much more room to breathe in her new home. Jacksonville, Fla., firefighters found the cat trapped in a car at headquarters and were able to pull her out, News4Jax.com reports.

Read the article >>

Nail Trims Don't Have to Be a Nightmare

Trimming your pet's nails doesn't have to be scary and actually is much easier to do at home than you think. Many people know they are supposed to trim their pet's nails, but are afraid to do so because they worry they will cut too short and cause bleeding, reports the Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

Read the article >>