

The CatChannel Newswire

Top stories: 8 lives to go for 'drain' kitten; Bob Barker donates $1 million for animal rights curriculum.

Posted: October 29, 2009, 3 a.m. EDT

8 Lives to Go for 'Drain' Kitten

A near-frozen kitty a whisker away from death was saved from a frigid Long Island storm drain yesterday thanks to a passer-by's sharp ears, the New York Post reports.

Read the article >>

Bob Barker Donates $1 Million for Animal Rights Curriculum

Former television game show host Bob Barker, who ended episodes of "The Price is Right" by asking viewers to spay and neuter their pets, donated $1 million to Drury University in Springfield, Mo., to establish a professorship on animal rights that he hopes will lead to a full undergraduate degree program, the Associated Press reports.

Read the article >>

Intruders at Zoo's Tiger Pen Charged

There will be no criminal charges against two men, one of whom was mauled by a Siberian tiger, when they allegedly scaled a fence and entered the Calgary Zoo, reports the Calgary (Alberta) Herald.

Read the article >>