

The CatChannel Newswire

Top stories: Nationwide ban on cat declawing is Barbi Twins' mission; cats are trainable - and that's not a punchline.

Posted: November 11, 2009, 3 a.m. EST

Nationwide Ban on Cat Declawing Is Barbi Twins' Mission

Shane and Sia Barbi want everyone to know it's not enough to see cities in California jumping on the band wagon to end declawing. They want the entire country to ban the practice, which they say "is not declawing. It's deknuckling," reports USA Today.

Read the article>>

Cats Are Trainable - And That's Not a Punchline

Training cats isn't just for professionals — human or feline. The Michigan Humane Society has a Pawsitive Start program that uses volunteers to train cats in their shelter in useful and fun behaviors like the high-five and walking into a carrier, reports MSNBC.com.

Read the article>>

Appeal to Pet Owners After Cat Dumped

A charity has appealed for pet owners to ask for help if they can't cope with caring for their animals after a cat was found dumped in Amersham, England, reports the Bucks Free Press.

Read the article>>