

The CatChannel Newswire

Top stories: New Hampshire humane society urges more respect for cats; Chihuahua takes over as kittens' mother.

Posted: November 20, 2009, 3 a.m. EST

Humane Society Urges More Respect for Cats

People who are upset about the mercy shooting of an injured cat this week should direct their energies toward starting a spay-and-neuter program and hiring an animal control officer, says the head of the Nashua (N.H.) humane society, reports the Nashua Telegraph.

Read the article>>

Chihuahua Takes Over as Kittens' Mother

A cat-loving Chihuahua mix has become a surrogate mother, suckling seven abandoned kittens, reports The (Christchurch, New Zealand) Press.

Read the article>>

Cat Disease Remains Fatal, But New Drug Tested

While there's some hope that Polyprenyl Immunostimulant will help cats with feline infectious peritonitis (FIP), the jury is still out, reports Tribune Media Services.

Read the article>>