

Cat in a Box Photo Contest Winner

Tuxedo cat Diesel thinks outside the box for winning photo.

Posted: December 2, 2009, 3 a.m. EST

DieselIt was a tough decision, but after sorting through more than 450 photos, Diesel, a tuxedo cat from Washington state, has been named winner of CatChannel's Cat in a Box photo contest.

Diesel's parent, Robert Ruge, says the handsome cat loved the box he was photographed in. "Every time he sat in it he would drop his arm over the edge, flattening it out and looking like a huge bodybuilder."

Diesel and Robert win a Bolt FroliCat Automatic Laser Light toy.

There were so many great photos, it was hard to single out one. So we didn't.

Here are some other photos we loved:

Witty, says Susan Young of Pennsylvania, "is always into everything."

Simba "is getting ready to try on his new shoes," says Samuel Powell of Massachusetts.

Shy "just happened to walk into the Spongebob Monopoly box," says Kaili Quimby of Massachusetts.

Click here to see all entries.