

The CatChannel Newswire

Top stories: 30-pound cat waiting for a home; Twin Cities cougar checking out suburb.

Posted: December 17, 2009, 3 a.m. EST

30-Pound Cat Waiting For a Home

A stray 30 pound cat is available for adoption at Wayside Waifs in Kansas City, Mo., waiting for an owner who doesn't mind a kitty with a little more to love, reports Fox4KC.com.

Read the article>>

Twin Cities Cougar Checking Out Suburb

That's one big cat, and he's on the move. The cougar making the rounds of the northern suburbs the past couple of weeks apparently headed east to Stillwater, Minn., reports the St. Paul (Minn.) Pioneer Press.

Read the article>>

No Place Like Home for Pets

The Klein Animal Shelter encourages county residents to think hard before adopting a new family member for the holidays. Shelter Executive Director Angela Wallace said that in order to save money more people have adopted adult cats and dogs instead of kittens and puppies. She noted this helps to avoid vaccination costs, reports the Daily (Jacksonville, Texas) Progress.

Read the article>>