

The CatChannel Newswire

Hot Topics Issue: In case you missed them, here are the stories cat lovers were buzzing about last week.

Posted: January 16, 2010, 3 a.m. EST

Cat Missing Since Hurricane Ike Found Alive, Healthy

A cat, missing since Hurricane Ike made landfall nearly 16 months ago, has been found alive and well. The animal's owner never gave up hope she would find her precious pet, reports (Little Rock, Ark.) Today'sTHV.com.

Read the article>>

After Hunting Tigers in India, He Built a Sanctuary for Them

A hero to giant cats and those who would try to save them, Billy Arjan Singh established a sanctuary for the carnivores in the northern Indian state of Uttar Pradesh. Mr. Singh, who died Jan. 1 at age 92, was a familiar companion to the tigers and leopards of the Dudhwa National Park, some of whom he raised before setting them free, reports the Wall Street Journal.

Read the article>>

Pet Mountain Lion Moved to Warmer Locale

A Rhode Island widow decided to give up a mountain lion she and her husband had kept as a pet, and arranged for Scott Lope, director of operations at Big Cat Rescue, to help transport Narla to an animal sanctuary in Tampa, Fla., UPI.com reports.

Read the article>>