

The CatChannel Newswire

Top stories: Cincinnati gets food pantry for pets; microchips to be required of pets reclaimed at L.A. shelters.

Posted: March 16, 2010, 3 a.m. EST

Cincinnati Gets Food Pantry for Pets

Pets as well as people are victims of the economic recession. Now two groups are launching a food pantry for pets, reports Cincinnati.com.

Read the article>>

Microchips to be Required of Pets Reclaimed at L.A. Shelters

The Los Angeles City Council voted unanimously to require that all pet dogs and cats redeemed from city shelters by their owners be microchipped before their release, reports the Los Angeles Times.

Read the article>>

Electric Crews Say Bobcat Caused Outage

Oklahoma Gas and Electric officials said a pole-climbing bobcat is to blame for a power outage in southern Oklahoma, reports The Associated Press.

Read the article>>